

Board Policy 444: Institutional Review Board

Personnel

Iowa Valley Community College District will maintain an Institutional Review Board (IRB) to review all research requests involving human participation at IVCCD or by an individual conducting research in the capacity of an IVCCD student, staff, or faculty member. The IRB will confirm that the proposed research adequately protects subject privacy and data, ensures ethical standards, and complies with all institutional, local, state, and federal regulations, including the U.S. Code of Federal Regulations, Title 21, Part 56 and Title 45, Part 46. Research identified as requiring IRB approval may not proceed until such approval is given.
